Reason for Desire of Norfolk and Newport News to Separate.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch,) NORFOLK, VA., August 28.—Engineer Reig was not well enough to attend the inquest to locate the blame for the disaster in which seventeen persons were killed at Bruce's Station, on the Atlantic Coast Line Rallway, August 17th, and the inquest was adjourned by Justice Bunting to be held in Portsmouth September 11th.

Engineer Reig is still an invalid at the Sarah Leigh Hospital. His injuries are more serious than suspected at the time of the accident, when he was pulled out of the river, where he went down with his locomotive. He is unable to walk, having developed paralysis of th

TWO PANICS AVERTED.

Many passengers were on the streets at 10 o'clock this morning, when one of the large trolley wires of the Norfolk Railway and Light (Jompany fell at Main and Bank Streets, and began to curl and coil dangerously. Among the passengers, Chief of Policy Boush happened to be passing. He called the nearby policemen from their stations, stopped all the cars, and instructed the conductors and motormen to form about the live wire to prevent the passengers from approach, and then sent for a repairer. Meantime there was a great deal of excitement when the crowds on the streets understood that a live wire wis loose. It was repaired and traffic resumed. TWO PANICS AVERTED.

During the illustrated lecture of Rev. Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell, in the First Baptist Church last night, there was an explosion in the stereopticon apparatus and some of the women were bruised and some of their gowns were torn in an effort to get out quickly. No one was hurt, and after singing the hymn "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," the congregation was dismissed in order.

The three-masted schooner Henry P. Havens, Captain Walton, of Newark, N. J., which sailed from this port last week with a cargo of lumber for New York, returned to port to-day in distress, the vessel having encountered the northeast gale off the coast Friday night, losing her deckload and having her foresall and mainsall carried away in the storm. She will repair here and make a new start for New York, REDISTRICT PLAN.

When the plan of redistricting the State for representatives in /Congress was referred to Congressman Harry L. fied with the district as it now exists.

I will wnot coppose a change of the boundary lines if the people of the district want them rearranged."

The plan is to put Newport News in the First District, represented by W. A. Jones, and leave Norfolk in the Second, represented by Mr. Maynard. Norfolk, as a seaport and as a navni shipbuilding port, demands that she be given congressional representation separate and apart from the city of Newport News, which is from the city of Newport News, which is not only her commercial rival, but which is working all the time in the interest is working all the time in the interest of the building of warships by private contract, while Norfolk is at the same time working in the interest of the building of warships by the government at its own navy yards.

NO FENCE LAW FOR BON AIR

Satisfactory Work Accomplished By the Convict Force.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTERFIELD, VA., August 28.—The Board of Supervisors to-day fixed the county levies for the year 1906 at sixty cents on the hundred dollars of property listed for taxation, twenty cents of which is for general expenses; twenty for road working, and twenty for county and district school funds. In view of the in-crease in the land assessment and in personal property values in some districts, this levy will swell the revenu over the receipts of last, year. The road and general county expenses, exclusive of school expenses, for the last fiscal year approximated $25,000. The delinquent tax lists for 1904 were submitted to the board by the county

The delinquent tax lists for 1904 were submitted to the board by the county treasurer to-day.

On petition of a majority of the qualified voters of Bon Air precinct, Midlothian District, the "no fence" law was declared in effect for that precinct, beginning six months from this date.

The requirement as to wide tires on all wagons using the county roads will take effect next Friday.

The petition of the Atlantic Postal-Cable Telegraph Company for permission to place its poles down the middle of the Petersburg Turnpike was rejected.

The Superintendent of county roads reported that satisfactory work was being accomplished by the convict force. Recently about two miles of gravelling has been accomplished at a cost of only feet wide and affeen inches deep. Most of the gravel, however, was contributed by public spirited citizens.

Dr. John F. Bransford, Commander of the William B. Wooldridge Camp of Confederate Veterans, to-day called the supervisor's attention to the reunion of old soldiers and basiste picnic to 'e held here on, next Saturday, at which time the Daughters of the Confederacy and Sous of Veterans will also hold meetings. Judge Clopton has been secured as leading speaker of the occasion, his theme to be the history of the Confederate solders from Chesterfield county. Special effort is being made to have a large sudience on Saturday in compliment to Judge Clopton, who endeared himself to the whole county by his long service as judge of the old county court.

The coroner, Dr. George K. Vandersliee, conducted an inquest this morning and the verdict was to the effect that the girl committed suicide, although no cause was assigned for the act.

The dead girl was pretty and attractive. She had been a student at one of the business colleges here and had a wide circle of friends in this city as well as in the neighborhood of her home. She was in this city Saturday afternoon having some pictures framed and at that time seemed to be in the best of spirits. At the time of the shooting Miss Krause's father and several friends were in the house. They heard a noise in the young woman's room, but paid no attention to it at the time and it was some minutes later when the girl was discovered lying on the floor of her room with blood pouring from a wound in her right tomple. There was also a gash in her chin, inflicted by the corner of a bureau drawer as the unfortunate girl fell.

They Smashed a "Joy Machine." Petition to Have General Nalle Retained.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CAMP JACKSON, BASIC CITY, VA Fergusson, the former of the Staunter rifles and the latter of the Clifton Forge who were before Mayor Reuter, of Basic, charged with breaking to pices the merry-go-round, Saturday night were discharged this afternoon. The men were arrested on Saturday ed in the guardhouse until this morning, when the constable served a warrant on them. They were then placed under arrest by the civil officers and taken to the mayor's court for trial.

G. W. Bruce, the owner of the amusement enterprise, who swere it the manufacture of their arrest appeared against the soldiers. There were many witnesses present and quite a number of them were examined. Sergant Major Irving R. Carrington defended the boys

Paid for the Joy Machine.

After quite a bit of the evidence had been heard, Mr. Bruce came to terms with the prisoners and by mutual agreement it was decided that they should pay the damages and Mr. Bruce was to withdraw the warrant which he did. Mayor Reuter dismissed the case on these grounds. Jones and Fergusson got together with their friends and a purse was raised which went to Mr. Bruce to pay for the overhauling of his "joy machine."

Wants General Nalle Retained.

A petition has been circulated in camp which will be handed Governor-efect Claude Swanson, in which it is asked that General William Nalle be retained as adjutant general of the State under the new administration. It is understood that nearly overy officer in the regiment has signed the paper.

Colonel Dempsey, U. S. A., who is here as instructing officer, is much gratified with the camp and the conduct of the men. He said to-day that he regretted the affair of Saturday night and trusted that such would never occur again. He further stated that he was of the opinion that the regiment had gained much valuable information while in camp.

The three officers of the Files, Battallon with fever, and died Thursday. He suf-fered from vomiting and turned yellow after death. The sheets of his bed were also yellow. The remains were interred on Friday and quite a lot of excitement has been caused in the neighborhood of his death. There is very little general credence given to the yellow fever theory, however, as it is known that fever pe-culiar to Florida causes a yellowing of the patient, as it also does of the sheets of his bed.
